

CONFIDENTIAL

So, you figured out it's me pulling the strings. But here's the deal: finding Dr. Kumar and stopping me from grabbing all his top-secret stuff is your next mission.

Yep, I made Dr. Kumar vanish, and I'm not just doing it for kicks. After all the junk he put me through, it's payback time. And guess what? I'm not holding back.

But don't think I'm playing nice. I'm loving watching you squirm. Dr. Kumar's whereabouts? That's my little secret. And while you're scratching your heads, I'm gearing up to snatch his research, ready to cause some serious chaos.

Your job? Track down Dr. Kumar before I get my hands on everything he's got. Time's ticking, and every second wasted is another win for me.

Get ready to hustle, 'cause I'm not pulling any punches. Will you beat me at my own game, or will I have the last laugh?

Tick-tock,
The Sneaky Villain
